Explanatory

It was originally planned to bind the proceedings of The American Christian Convention, and The Christian Annual, in one volume. This plan called for the preparation of the proceedings of the Convention and Association first. It was discovered, however, that the two bound in one volume, would make a book too large for convenient use as a reference book, and the necessity for the two volumes is quite largely the cause of the delay. The proceedings of the Convention having been first prepared, the book had to be the first to be printed.

Then there has been an unusual tardiness and indifference in reporting the conferences, which has required more than an ordinary amount of correspondence. A few conference secretaries sent me the printed minutes of their conference sessions, from which they expected me to make out a report of their churches. It has been absolutely impossible to make out an accurate and satisfactory report from the printed minutes of the conferences sent me. One conference did not report a single Sunday-school, and the editor of the Annual well knows that there are as many as twenty schools in the conference. The following named conferences did not report at all: Kentucky Number Two, Rays Hill and Southern Pennsylvania, Scioto Valley, Southern Illinois, Western Washington, Eastern Atlantic (Col.), New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania (Col.), North Carolina (Col.). The Western Michigan and Northern Indiana did not report last year, nor this.

Some of the general summaries, and tables, heretofore found in the book, are omitted this year. The reasons for the omission are:

1. That the book might be hastened to its completion.
2. The full and latest reports of conferences, churches, membership, and ministers were made to the Convention at Burlington, in October, and may be found in that volume.
3. When it was planned to bind the proceedings of the Convention, and the Annual in one volume, it was deemed unnecessary to duplicate these tables.

Ministers and church officers are kindly urged to use this book. It may not be absolutely correct in every particular, but it contains information of very great value to every member of the Christian Church, and instead of there being an edition of five hundred, it should have been five thousand. It is not an unusual thing for church clerks, and sometimes ministers, to write me for information which, for reply, I copy from The Christian Annual. This volume contains the record of a year's work, and it will help you to see what has been done, and what could be done, if only unitedly we should stick to our task. Answers to almost every question that might arise about the Christian Church, and its activities for the year, may be found in this book. We are but a feeble folk, and yet we are making a splendid contribution to Kingdom Work, and what we do, and how we do it, should be known.

Churches could do no better thing than to add the cost of a dozen Christian Annuals to their budget, and see to it that their officers have the means of informing themselves about the church they serve. This book is a tool with which to work, a source of knowledge from which to draw, a container of valuable information. There is little danger of the rank and file of our people being too well informed, but there is great danger of the officers of our churches and conferences not knowing enough about the work they are expected to do, to enable them to do it intelligently.

The Christian Publishing Association without change in organization or limitation of power was recognized by the recent quadrennial meeting as the Department of Publishing of The General Convention of the Christian Church, thereby welding together in closer unity The Christian Publishing Association and The General Convention of the Christian Church which bodies were originally separate and distinct organizations.

The closer union thus made at once began to bear good fruit, for by agreement of the Board of Trustees of The Christian Publishing Association and the Board of Education of The American Christian Convention, the Teachers and Officers Journal was changed into The Journal of Christian Education with Dr. Harper Editor in Chief and with Associate editors as set out above. By co-operation of the same Boards Mr. Hermon Eldredge and Mrs. F. E. Bullock were selected not only as Associate editors of The Journal of Christian Education but also Field Workers in the new and great department of Christian Education.

The co-operation of the two Boards in the publication of The Journal of Christian Education and the division of the editorial work upon the Sunday-school literature which has been made, it seems to me is the most advanced step ever taken by the Christian Church in the larger field of Christian education. Publishing is the great right arm of Christian education; with three specialists as editors of our Sunday-school publications we are assured of the highest quality of our literature for our children and young people. The Journal of Christian Education is designed to cover the field of Christian education for all classes of our young people, whether in the home, the church, the Sunday-school, the Christian Endeavor or our Colleges.

The day of a broader view of Christian education is upon us. All phases of religious training and development are being recognized as never before. We hope our people will catch the vision of the far-reaching possibilities of the Christian training of the children and youths in every home in the Christian Church. We believe we have laid a broad and strong foundation for the right training of all our young people that they may grow into well rounded and useful lives in both church and state. With such editors and field workers as we have engaged we shall be proud of our progress as a church in Christian education, if we can have the prayers and hearty support of the masses of our church people. We would not have one of "these little ones to perish." Would you? If not, then may we have a prayer chain linking every one together in an onward march to drive out the evil in all our lives and place therein true Christian character and life.

BOARD OF PUBLISHING

The Board of Trustees of The Christian Publishing Association shall be ex officio the members of the Board of Publishing of The General Convention of the Christian Church with the same president and secretary as the Board of Trustees.

By this action at the recent quadrennial session the Board of Trustees has been given additional authority and responsibility and acts in two distinct capacities. As the Board of Publishing they have been given control over the funds that have come into the hands of the Secretary for Publishing from the Forward Movement and which may come into his hands from that source and like sources.

This was a very proper and necessary action, for, heretofore, the Secretary for Publishing had no direct board of control.

The Board of Publishing has undertaken to administer the Forward Movement Funds, in its hands for the purposes intended by the donors and in the spirit of this great movement of our church and with as little expense as possible.

In order that "Our Principles" as a church might be more carefully and generally studied, prizes were authorized for the best essays to be written on these principles. Announcement has already been made of the prizes and terms of contest. It is the hope of the secretary and of the Board that the plan adopted will create a much greater interest in our distinctive church principles than has ever been manifested since the early days of our church. Not only do we hope that our young people and ministers may become more deeply interested but that they be broadly educated in our principles which are being more and more recognized as the basic principles of church unity and fellowship.

The Board ordered that five thousand copies of the address of Dr. Martyn Summerbell made before The American Christian Convention at Burlington, N. C., be printed for free distribution.

The Board of Publishing and the Trustees of The Christian Publishing Association will make a vigorous, and we hope a successful campaign to increase the circulation of The Herald of Gospel Liberty to the goal of ten thousand subscribers as fixed by the president of the Publishing Association in his Burlington address.

A definite basis for the campaign was adopted by the following action of the Board.

I. That the Manager of The Christian Publishing Association arrange with pastors or others in the local congregations to secure clubs of ten or more Herald subscribers at the regular rate of two dollars, and that we permit such agents to retain five ($5.00) dollars for every ten subscribers thus obtained. We believe this will appeal to Christian Endeavor societies and Ladies' Aid organizations as well as to organized Sunday-school classes.

With this basis and the active support of our pastors, college friends, churches, Sunday-schools, and Christian Endeavor societies under the direction and leadership of Mr. John H. Stewart, manager of our publishing interests, we hope that The Herald of Gospel Liberty subscription list will mount higher than ever before in our history.

We believe that far-reaching and constructive plans are laid and are being pushed that will be of lasting benefit to our beloved church. "Hand to hand, shoulder to shoulder," moving forward as one solid phalanx we shall accomplish much to advance the Kingdom of our Lord and Christ, through the agencies of the Board of Publishing and The Christian Publishing Association of the Christian Church.

The Burlington session of The American Christian Convention took a magnificent forward step in providing for a correlated system of Christian Education reaching from our homes, through our Sunday-schools and Christian Endeavor societies, to our Colleges.

The constitutional provisions for this new department read:

The Convention shall include the following departments: Missions, Christian Education, Publications, Evangelism and Life-work Recruits, and Finance, with the societies and organizations auxiliary to the Convention or its departments. Each department shall have one secretary, except the department of Missions, which shall have two, a secretary for Home Missions and a secretary for Foreign Missions.

The Convention shall elect not more than eleven persons, who with the secretary of the department of Christian Education shall constitute a Board of Christian Education, the secretary of the department being president ex officio. This board may declare vacancies in its membership for cause, subject to an appeal to the Executive Board of the Convention. It shall have charge of all the Convention interests connected with Christian education, and shall survey, outline, promote, and direct a full program of Christian education and training for Christian life and service reaching from our homes through our churches, communities, schools, and colleges, and shall fraternally co-operate with similar departments in other denominations, and with organizations having similar objectives.

The new department has issued a bulletin of "Plans and Suggestions" (twenty-four pages) which may be had free on application to W. A. Harper, Elon College, N. C. We understand that we are to move cautiously and constructively in our work, so as to conserve every good of every organization, and so also as to avoid competition and duplication of effort. We shall need the prayers and co-operation of the brotherhood as we undertake.

Our budget calls for $25,000.00 for the colleges, and for $15,000.00 for editorial and field work. This is to be secured through three offerings: On January 14, 1923, from Christian Endeavor societies, $3,000.00; on the last Sunday in September (Promotion Day) $7,000.00 from Sunday-schools; and on the first Sunday in November, $30,000.00 from the churches as such.

Our departments will have the following editors and field workers:

Dr. S. Q. Helfenstein, Editor Adult Literature.

Mr. Hermon Eldredge, Young People's Division Editor and Field Secretary.

Mrs. F. E. Bullock, Children's Division Editor and Field Secretary.

Dr. W. A. Harper, Editor The Journal of Christian Education.

Mr. Hermon Eldredge, Mrs. F. E. Bullock, Dr. W. G. Sargent, Dr. Hugh A. Smith, Miss Helen Stearns, Dr. W. T. Walters, Rev. H. Shelton Smith, Rev. C. B. Riddle, Rev. J. E. Kauffman, and Dr. R. C. Helfenstein, Associate Editors of The Journal of Christian Education.

Mr. Hermon Eldredge, Sunday-school Notes for Herald of Gospel Liberty.

Dr. A. B. Kendall, Christian Endeavor Notes for Herald of Gospel Liberty.

The Journal of Christian Education will replace the Teachers and Officers Journal, which has served the church so well, for nearly a dozen years. The new publication will begin its first issue April 1, 1923, and will appear monthly. None of the editors, or associate editors, of The Journal of Christian Education will receive any salary for service rendered in its preparation. It is a work of love, for a cause we love.

Mr. Hermon Eldredge will be our all-time officer, devoting his marked abilities to editing the literature for our young people, and to field work. He will boost the entire program of Christian Education as it relates to young people, which means Sunday-schools, Christian Endeavor, Missions, Scouts and Camp Fires, Reading Courses, Week-day Religious Instruction, etc.

Mrs. F. E. Bullock will render a parallel service for the Children's Division. Her signal abilities will yield a fine harvest of progress in this basic department of our church work.

We need an additional all-time field worker and editorial writer, whose special field will be with the adult and administrative divisions. The General Secretary, too, should be an all-time officer. At present he is to give what time he can spare from his college duties to organizing and directing the work until such time as the all-time man is found. It is needless to say this service will be without cost to the church.

In conclusion I cannot do better than to quote from the bulletin of "Plans and Suggestions," the words of introduction and conclusion. They are:

INTRODUCTORY WORD

It should be distinctly understood that the plans and suggestions herein made will be realized only over a term of years. We do not propose any radical reorganization or reconstruction of our Sunday-school, our Christian Endeavor, our College, or our other Christian educational work. The proposed correlation plan is the goal toward which we shall work. We cannot hope to achieve our ideal overnight nor even in a brief quadrennium. We must grow by experience out of the present competing and chaotic condition of the Church's educational situation into a real system of Christian educational statesmanship, and our sacred duty is to conserve every good we now possess, to eliminate duplication of effort, to consolidate every interest, and so to integrate our homes, our Sunday-schools, our Christian Endeavor work, our Colleges, our week-day religious schools, our recreational, social, and benevolent organizations and institutions that a unified impact may be made on the religious problems of our time and a coherent view of the religious life presented our youth. We shall need to modify these plans from time to time. We are entering new territory and cannot see all the way.

We must ever, too, keep in mind in the foreground of all our planning—that "the child in the midst" is the object of all our efforts at systematizing, correlating, and integrating. Not formal instruction alone, but also the development of Christian character is in line with our ultimate purpose. The little ones whom Jesus declared to be of his Kingdom we shall through our best endeavor strive ever to bring to him and to hold for his Kingdom. Should we fail here, great will be our fall. With this as our purpose and with the prayer that God may use us to advance his cause, let us approach the task assigned, rather the opportunity, that has been offered us by our brethren in the Lord.

CONCLUSION

A word of caution and counsel is needed here. This correlated system of Christian Education cannot be incorporated into the general Church life nor in a local unit by legislative enactment. It is to be a matter of growth and development. It can move more rapidly in some cases than in others. The Lord's work demands haste, but undue haste will defeat the very hopes we aspire to realize.

The correlated program will fall flat without trained leaders. So the first step for its introduction will be in any case to train leaders in sympathy with it and qualified to undertake it.

Even then it should be undertaken by degrees. It is clear that the Department of Christian Education believes in the closely graded lessons. It would be a great mistake, however, to introduce the entire seventeen years' work on October 1, 1923. Begin with the Children's Division and with the first year graded course for each of its departments. The next year add another graded course. In two years with the Beginners and three with the Primary and Junior pupils we will thus introduce the whole graded series for the Children's Division. The second year, too, would find us beginning the first year graded Intermediate work, and so on.

Again financially, go gradually into the matter of incorporating activities and organizations into the budget system. Add, say, one line of work a year, beginning with the Sunday-school, then Christian Endeavor, till all are incorporated. The missionary societies will no doubt be the last to come in, but eventually they will do so.

Begin correlating Christian Endeavor with the Juniors. Go slow and consolidate every interest as development in the program proceeds.

Boy Scouts or Camp Fire Girls perhaps are already organized. Start to get all in the proper troops. Elect the Scout Masters or Guardians as officers or teachers in the proper department. Have teachers elected as Assistant Masters or Guardians. It will likely require three years to accomplish these steps.

The present divided condition of the Church's educational life has been long in developing. Sacred associations are connected with every cleavage. We deplore the cleavages, but we must conserve the sacred associations as we heal the breaches.

Wherever possible we will send a field specialist to aid in the set-up work of the local Church. In every case, the Department of Christian Education will gladly correspond with any Church or person as to how to proceed.

Finally, let us say that the very first step, before any work of correlation is to be done, is to survey the local situation. For this purpose the Department of Christian Education will send a schedule. On the tabulated facts revealed by this survey, the Department will be able adequately and scientifically to advise what steps should be taken in each instance.

And finally—If you wish to know what goes in between in this bulletin, write for a free copy to W. A. Harper, General Secretary, Elon College, N. C.

Department of Home Missions

Rev. Omer S. Thomas, D. D., Secretary

Board of Home Missions—Rev. G. O. Lankford, D. D., Burlington, N. C.—President.
 Mrs. Athella M. Howsare, 1535 N. Euclid Ave., Dayton, Ohio—Secretary.
 Rev. Omer S. Thomas, D. D., 40 C. P. A. Bldg., Dayton, Ohio—General Secretary and Treasurer.
 Rev. H. M. Hainer, 213 Tremont St., New Bedford, Mass.
 Rev. C. G. Nelson, Red Cloud, Nebr.
 M. S. Campbell, Collison, Ill.

The work of the Home Mission Department is gradually growing in its power for usefulness. There are a number of lines of work into which it has already entered with very excellent success.

In the educational work of this department thousands of pieces of literature are published and distributed free to the churches. More and more the pastors are learning the best use for this kind of information and are getting it to the people.

In the Christian church there are a number of ministers who have not had the advantage of college training, and because of that they feel the need for better methods of study and better knowledge of the modern church program. The Home Mission Board is putting on Pastors' Schools in order that these studies might be carried forward. The Board has paid the travel expenses and a part of the keep of pastors while at the ten-day schools at Palmer College, Albany, Mo., at Union Christian College, Merom, Ind., and at Defiance College, Defiance, Ohio. There have been about one hundred and twenty pastors in attendance at these schools each year for the last three years. The results of this work have been very gratifying to those who attended and to those who have been interested in maintaining them.

Our Home Mission Department is now aiding in the sustentation of about ten field men and one general field secretary, and also pastors of about twenty-five of our churches. A great deal of the work which has been accomplished by these men has not been such as could be tabulated, but the influence of the work has very much increased the efficiency and value of our church life. There have been as a result of the work quite a number of young people who have decided for definite Christian service. Our field men have been able to form pastorates and secure pastors for churches in scores of places where the churches were suffering because of the lack of pastoral care.

The special fields of the Home Mission Department are steadily being carried forward. The Americanization work is constantly growing in interest and during the last year a helper has been added so that we now have the pastor of the church at Haverhill and two paid full-time workers in the Americanization work. Results have been very gratifying. Our Western Washington work steadily continues to develop. During the last few months the promise for a permanent work has been very bright, especially in the new church known as the Brooklyn church on North River.

Our receipts for the general home mission fund for the last year were $33,529.69, and we had a surplus of cash at the beginning of the year of $26,389.33, making a total of available money for last year of $59,919.02. This year we started in with a credit balance of $31,551.85, with possible receipts of $40,000.00 during the year. At the Board meeting the appropriations were placed at about $50,000.00.

The Board is planning to enter into some new work among the Indians in co-operation with the Home Missions Council.

Our loan funds during the last year reached about $20,000.00 and before many months it is expected that our loans to churches for church buildings and parsonages will reach about $30,000.00, which is the limit appropriated for that purpose for the coming year.

Department of Foreign Missions

Rev. Wilson P. Minton, D. D., Secretary

Board of Foreign Missions—Rev. W. H. Denison, D. D., Dayton, Ohio—President.
 Rev. Wilson P. Minton, D. D., Dayton, Ohio—Secretary.
 Rev. O. S. Thomas, D. D., Dayton, Ohio—Treasurer.
 J. O. Winters, Greenville, Ohio.
 Rev. W. P. Fletcher, Dayton, Ontario.
 Mrs. Alice V. Morrill, Defiance, Ohio.

In addition to routine matters the following action was taken by the Foreign Mission Department in annual session November 21 and 22.

The securing immediately, by buying or building, of a suitable parsonage-preaching place at Mōka, Japan, the cost not to exceed $2,500.00. This is an emergency involving our whole work there owing to lack of houses for rent.

Medical and dental allowances are to be continued at fifty dollars a family for the former and twenty dollars for the latter with the further provision that the Board will share with the family any such expenses above the allowance on a fifty-fifty basis.

We endorsed the proposal of the Japan Mission to co-operate with the Methodist Theological School, Aoyama Gakuin, in Tokyo, and authorized the Foreign Mission Secretary to pay $350.00 on last year's work and $500.00 for support of the work this year, and we approved the action of the Mission in designating Dr. A. D. Woodworth as a member of the staff of said school.

Mr. Taizumi and Mr. Sano, two American trained Japanese men, are to be returned to Japan next summer, to become pastors in our field.

The request of the Japan Mission to enter the proposed new National Christian Council of Japan was approved.

The Board agreed to unite with the Home Mission Department in providing half the salary and expenses of two field workers to give half time each under the direction of the Woman's Board.

The grant of $200.00 a year for Gladys McCord was continued and a grant of $25.00 a month was voted for Mrs. McCord for this coming year.

The secretary was instructed to secure a horse and buggy outfit for use in the Arus, P. R., field.

One hundred fifty thousand dollars was appropriated to purchase additional land at Ponce in connection with the mission home.

Two hundred thousand dollars was granted for purchase of a lot next to the church in Arus, the same to be held for parsonage site.

Mr. Bruce W. Morton, Toronto, Canada, was placed under appointment as a missionary to Porto Rico, to go to the field as soon as arrangements can be made for him.

Mr. Victor Rivera, who is to graduate from Elon in the spring, is to be sent back by the Board to do work in our field among his native people of Porto Rico.

Miss Angie Crew, West Milton, Ohio, who will graduate from Defiance in the spring, was placed under appointment as a missionary to Japan, the details of her going to the field to be worked out later.

A representative from the Board is to be sent to the Chautauqua at Elon next summer to teach a course in Foreign Missions.

The following resolution was adopted: "We congratulate the Azabu church on their initiating a movement for a new church building and pledging a liberal amount toward this fund, and that this Board attempt to raise $7,500.00 this year toward this fund provided the church there will raise $2,500.00 of their pledge."

One hundred twenty-five thousand dollars was voted for a memorial window in the new Christian Temple Church, Norfolk, Va., in honor of Miss Williams, now being supported by that church and Rev. D. P. Barrett and wife, formerly supported by the Memorial Temple church at Norfolk.

The following budget was adopted:

Japan—
Regular work	$26,738.50
Special	5,960.00	$32,698.50
Porto Rico—
Regular work	$ 9,653.00
Special	12,890.00	22,543.00
China work		10,000.00
Miscellaneous Budget—
Administration	$ 5,400.00
Travel of Secretary, Postage, McCord account, C. M. deficit, Literature, Union work, Woman worker, etc.	6,225.00	11,625.00
Total Budget		$76,866.50

Of this amount $10,000.00 was voted for the Santa Isabel Chapel last year and we have on hand in that fund about $8,310.00, thus reducing the actual needed funds for this year to $68,556.50, with possible resources based upon regular and special receipts last year of $65,011.46.

Department of Evangelism and Life Service

(Official Title Department of Evangelism and Life-work Recruits)

R. C. Helfenstein, M. A., D. D., Secretary

Rev. McD. Howsare, Dayton, Ohio, Executive Secretary

Members of Board

Rev. R. C. Helfenstein, 109 S. Bradford St., Dover, Del.

Rev. Geo. D. Eastes, 2 Hatton St., Portsmouth, Va.

Rev. Willoe J. Hall, R. R. 1, Dayton, Ohio.

Rev. Clarence Defur, Wakarusa, Indiana.

Rev. Ernest D. Gilbert, Conneaut, Ohio.

The Department of Evangelism and Life Service was created at the Burlington Convention. The creation of such a department is in keeping with the advance steps taken by other progressive denominations during the past few years. Practically all the leading denominations have come to realize in a new and larger way that Evangelism is the first work of the Kingdom, and that as such it should be systematized in the interest of greater efficiency.

The Department of Evangelism and Life Service in our Church has two main objectives. First it will seek to quicken a greater interest in a rational and wholesome type of Evangelism among all the pastors and churches, seeking to unify the evangelistic effort throughout the denomination. The best methods of Evangelism will be recommended to meet the peculiar conditions in various pastorates. "A Year Round" program will be presented in the interest of Educational and Inspirational Evangelism. A net gain or ten percent increase in membership each year in every church in the denomination is recommended by the Board as a goal to be urged by every Conference. This will enable us to realize the goal set by the Burlington Convention—namely to bring our membership up to one hundred and twenty-five thousand members by the end of the present quadrennium.

The second objective of the Department is to seek to enlist at least fifty recruits each year during the present quadrennium to fill the ranks of the pastors at the Home Base, and the ranks of the Missionaries on the Foreign Field. The proposition of securing fifty trained Life-work Recruits among our churches each year is not only desirable but imperative if the work of our denomination is to continue. This Department will make a careful study of the needs and of the resources, and will in every way possible seek to assist the pastors and churches in securing Life Recruits.

An Executive Secretary will be employed by the Department who will give his full time to the development of the work and the service of our Conferences and Churches.

In addition, the Department will be responsible for "The Prayer Page" in The Herald of Gospel Liberty, Rev. Ernest D. Gilbert, a member of the Board, continuing as writer of the same.

A Statement of the Sunday-school Department

On January 1, 1923, the Sunday-school Department of The American Christian Convention ceased to exist. Or rather it blended into the Department of Christian Education of which Dr. W. A. Harper is secretary and chairman of the Board.

Mrs. F. E. Bullock who has so faithfully served the Sunday School Board as Field Secretary, is now to be Editor and Field Secretary of the Children's Division of the new Department of Christian Education and Hermon Eldredge, former chairman of the Sunday School Board will give his full time to the work of Editor and Field Secretary of the Young People's Division.

Long live the new Department of Christian Education and useful may it be to the Church and the Kingdom. HERMON ELDREDGE.

CO-OPERATION

It will be very necessary for the work of our office to be supplemented by all our denominational officers, church officials, and pastors in the following matters:

- a. See that every conference and church has its Forward Movement committee of five appointed and functioning.
- b. See that above committees with addresses are on file in our office.
- c. See that we are notified of the new addresses of subscribers who move.
- d. Notify us immediately of the death of subscribers.
- e. Make plain to all, the sacredness of all these pledges to God and his church, and that the payment of the last pledge is necessary and is depended upon.
- f. Every church should reach its full quota of the special million dollars.

FUTURE PLANS

The Burlington Convention continued the Forward Movement two years, until January 1, 1925, expecting that the full Movement will, by that time, be fully incorporated in the life and activity of the churches and conferences, so that the separate and special denominational organization of the Movement may be fully merged into the denominational life, organization, and activities of the church.

It is the immediate task to see that the full five-point organization of the Movement is put into full working order by every church and conference. Every conference official, every pastor, every church officer, is requested to help bring this about.

The Forward Movement plans, objectives, and spirit should be presented on the program of every gathering and meeting among our people. Program makers of institute, convention, conference gatherings will have large responsibility for the success of the Movement in the churches.

It is the aim of the Convention to see that the denominational and conference organizations conserve and promote the objectives of the Movement and see that they are incorporated in the life of every church and conference.

The Convention at Burlington elected a Board of Evangelism and Life Service and made it a part of the denominational life. This Board will take over the Devotional, Evangelism, and Life Work, heretofore conducted by the Forward Movement. This will make it possible for this work to be greatly enlarged.

The Board of Christian Education will take over the work of Religious Education as carried on heretofore by the Forward Movement.

The Superintendent of the Forward Movement in addition to his duties as such, has been given the added responsibility of Secretary of Stewardship, Promotion and Social Service for the Convention.

SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN CONVENTION

The Forward Movement in the bounds of the Southern Christian Convention goes by the name of Men and Millions Movement. It has been placed under the direct charge of the Mission Board of the Southern Convention. Rev. J. O. Atkinson, D. D., is directing the work.

Lacy.

For a number of years certain Christian ministers and Christian laymen in the East have had a vision of such an institution, but the vision did not materialize until June, 1922, at a meeting in the Carversville Christian Church at Carversville, Pa. A large number of ministers and laymen were present at this meeting and after many fervent prayers and lengthy discussions, the whole number of men present voted in favor of establishing a Christian Orphanage at Carversville, Pa., on the property known as the "Hillside." The location seemed to be providential on account of the local interest at Carversville and owing to the fact that the New Jersey Christian Conference had an option on this property. The option had been secured by Mr. Frank R. Beach, Secretary of the Conference, for institutional purposes. It was on the suggestion of Rev. Lindsay F. Johnson, D. D., of Brooklyn, N. Y., that a motion was made to convert this property into a home for orphans and dependent children.

THE PROPERTY

The "Hillside" was formerly a private educational institution, and consists of one large stone building with fifty-two rooms, one cottage with seven rooms, one school building with four rooms, one large barn and garage. It is located in the Delaware River valley on the Belvedere division of the Pennsylvania railroad. Is situated on a beautiful hillside in a large oak grove, and is said to be one of the most healthful sections of the country. It is located thirty miles from Philadelphia and seventy miles from New York. Eleven passenger trains from local station each day, going north, east, and west. The property was purchased at a very low figure, the sum of nine thousand dollars ($9,000.00), owing to the fact that its usefulness as a private school had ceased. It is in all particulars fitted for an orphanage without any change in its buildings. It is supplied with running water through the house from a never-failing spring in the hills. The buildings contain ample room for one hundred children. We have a large stone Christian Church in the village of Carversville, quite near and convenient to the Orphanage.

THE ORGANIZATION

The organization will consist of all conferences in the Christian denomination that may desire to participate in the support and management of the orphanage.

The charter calls for fifteen trustees who shall be nominated for election by co-operating conferences. Seven conferences have definitely endorsed the work and are represented on the Board of Trustees. The institution has no capital stock, and will be run as a benevolent enterprise. It is incorporated under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania in the first class, and will be conducted in the interest of orphans and dependent children.

Conferences directly interested in this work, and who have already given their indorsement are: New York Eastern, New York Central, New York Western, New Jersey, Tioga River, Rays Hill and Southern Pennsylvania, and also the New England Christian Convention.

The institution was officially opened January 1, 1923. The regular annual meeting of the Board of Trustees will be the second Wednesday in July at Carversville, Pa.

The shipping point for all freight or express will be Doylestown, Pa.

The building is frame, quite large, well proportioned, and tastefully finished. It is heated with a furnace, lighted with electricity, and has a basement under the entire building, which affords opportunity for such gatherings as demand a room of its kind. Rev. J. F. Work for New Americans

BY OMER S. THOMAS

REV. MISS FRIEDA KIRKENDALL.

Director of Americanization Work, Haverhill, Mass.

After one hundred years of active, aggressive work in the Christian Church at Haverhill, Mass., the part of the city in which the church was located found itself overflowing with tenement houses filled with people of every nationality, so that the possibility of caring in that section of the city only for the English speaking people was found to be very difficult; so of the six Protestant churches formerly there, there now remains only one—that is the South Christian Church, which has perhaps been able to live because of its vision of an opportunity of larger service.

In connection with the Home Mission Board, in October, 1920, a work was begun among the foreign speaking people of that section under the pastor, Rev. Carlton Easton and Miss Frieda Kirkendall. The first few months little was accomplished except in planning for an equipment and getting acquainted with the field. The first steps made were in visitations to the sick and unfortunate, and in establishing a Sunday-school, largely attended by Italian children, who predominate in that section of the city.

The following year it was decided by the Mission Board to open a community house for demonstration and classroom purposes. An apartment was secured and furnished, which became the home of the supervisor, Miss Kirkendall, as well as the place for demonstration and class work. Gradually the scope of the work was increased.

Groups of women, who were eager to learn English were taught in their homes. Men's Bible classes were taught at the community house, largely attended by Italian men. In May, 1922, Miss Akabie Tatian, an Armenian girl, who is an excellent linguist, speaking a number of different languages, became the assistant to Miss Kirkendall in the work. Through her a great many more families were reached because of her ability to speak their language.

The work is gradually enlarging so that the plan of work at the present time is about as follows: A small library has been started, new classes for Armenian children, sewing classes for both girls and women, English classes for the women, monthly parties for the women, men and women's Bible classes, boys' club, classes for men for the study of Civics and History and United States Government, and a Sunday-school for the new Americans.

The Home Mission Board in the beginning of the work assisted by the Haverhill Federation of Churches placed a moving-picture outfit in the church. That is now being used and largely patronized by the foreign children of that section of the city on Sunday evening and is proving a very great educational force.

All in all the Haverhill work is proving the most successful of anything of that kind which the Home Mission Board has undertaken.

JOSIAH G. BISHOP

Josiah G. Bishop was born in Smith County Virginia, September 14, 1833, and died in Dayton, Ohio, October 15, 1922. His early life was spent in Virginia and Indiana, but while he was yet quite young his parents removed to Iowa, which at that time was a frontier State. Here he experienced the hardships of western frontier life, and many were the trying days which came to him, especially when the winters shut in the family, and reduced their living to the barest subsistence. He was born of the Spirit in the winter of 1848, and in the springtime of the same year he united with the Christian Church. Soon after his conversion he felt called to the ministry of the gospel, and in 1854, when he was but twenty-one years of age, he entered the ministry of the Christian Church, and continued it for a period of sixty-eight years. In 1874 he entered the Christian Biblical Institute located at Stanfordville, N. Y., where he completed the prescribed course of the school. He was married on Christmas Day, 1875, to Miss Emily K. Knapp, of New York. He was engaged in pastoral work until October, 1890, when he was elected Secretary for the Department of Missions of The American Christian Convention, in which capacity he served for sixteen years, and for eight years following was treasurer of the Mission Board of the Christian Church. In October, 1894, he began The Christian Missionary.

He edited and published this magazine for sixteen years. He published, "The Christians and the Great Commission," which is a required textbook in many of our conference courses of study. He also published, "A Biblical View of the Church," together with many pamphlets bearing especially on the subject of missions. He and Mrs. Bishop made a trip to Japan in the interest of our mission work in that country.

ALVA H. MORRILL

Rev. Alva Herman Morrill was born in Grafton, N. H., June 7, 1848. Died in Newton, N. H., September 8, 1922. He was elected President of The American Christian Convention at Haverhill, Mass., in October, 1894, and served four years. He was Chairman of the Commission on Public Morals for the session of 1918, and was present and submitted the report. He was Chairman of the same Commission for the session of 1922, and had prepared the report, and read the galley proof. He had been appointed to conduct the memorial service at the Convention on Sunday afternoon.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The tentative suggestions for the correlation of our Sunday-school, Christian Endeavor, and college work have been adopted, with amendments, as the working basis for our department.

The Department of Publishing has agreed to share with us in the expense of the editors and field workers.

We have adopted a budget of $40,000.00, to be raised as follows: through Sunday-schools, $7,000.00; through Christian Endeavor societies, $3,000.00; and through churches, $30,000.00. Of the offering from the churches only $5,000.00 will be retained for the expenses of the department, the remainder being apportioned to our colleges on the agreed basis. Four thousand dollars was apportioned to the colleges at this session.

We expect few radical changes to come as the consequence of the merging of our Christian Educational work. We must conserve every interest, and develop as we advance.

The Journal of Christian Education perhaps should be especially mentioned, as taking the place of the Teachers and Officers Journal.

We have appointed a special standing committee to handle all matters referred to us, or properly belonging to our department.

Later on Dr. Harper submitted additional information concerning the proposed changes in Sunday-school literature, and naming the salaries to be paid to different editors.

Rev. Roy C. Helfenstein, Secretary for the Department of Evangelism and Life-work Recruits, submitted the report of the Department, asking that the name—Evangelism and Life-work Recruits—be changed to Evangelism and Life Service. The report included a recommendation by the Board that Dr. Roy C. Helfenstein be the Convention's representative on the Committee on Evangelism of the Federal Council. On motion this recommendation was referred to the Executive Board of the Convention. (Note: Dr. Helfenstein left with the Secretary the written report, which will be placed on file in the Convention office.) In the session of the Executive Board the Convention president ruled that the name Evangelism and Life-work Recruits was the constitutional name of the department.

Hon. O. W. Whitelock, Secretary for the Department of Publishing, submitted the report of the Department, stating that about all that the Publishing Department could report had been submitted by the Department of Christian Education.

Rev. Alva M. Kerr, D. D., Editor of The Herald of Gospel Liberty, explained to the Board the make-up of the paper, and called attention to changes, which he believed would very greatly add to the attractiveness and value of the periodical. Voted that the editor of The Herald of Gospel Liberty be given free range and full power, with the authority of the General Board to decide the form, make-up, and character of the articles, according to his own notion.

An additional statement from the Department of Christian Education was submitted, including information concerning appropriations to our colleges.

CHANGE IN ORGANIZATION

The Woman's Board for Foreign Missions was organized and incorporated in 1886. The Woman's Board for Home Missions was organized in 1890 and incorporated in 1914. Our conferences and local societies have never had but one organization—for both Home and Foreign Missions. At the annual meeting of the Boards in October, 1921, a committee was appointed to study the organization of other Boards and to consider the advisability of changing the form of our own organization. At the recent quadrennial convention held at Burlington, N. C., it was voted to unite the two Boards into one Board which shall be known as the Woman's Mission Board of the Christian Church. We propose to act, however, very carefully and it was decided to elect the same women as officers of both Boards, thus keeping our incorporations intact for at least two years but functioning as one Board. This change will make no difference in the method of reporting for the local societies. The conference Corresponding Secretaries and Treasurers, instead of sending reports to two people, will send to one—the General Secretary-Treasurer, Woman's Mission Boards, Room 25, C. P. A. Bldg., Dayton, Ohio.

The Board of Publishing reported that all those who were nominated by the General Board, to be elected by the Board of Publishing, had been elected to the offices named, but that Rev. Alva M. Kerr accepted the editorship for one year only, and declined to accept the offer of increased salary. It also reported that the salary for the editor of the Adult Sunday-school literature had been fixed at twelve hundred dollars per annum. The report was approved.

Moved and seconded that a committee of three, of which the President should be chairman, be appointed to prepare and present rules of procedure for the government of this Board. Motion carried, and the President announced additional names—Rev. W. P. Minton, Rev. W. H. Denison.

The Department of Missions made additional report concerning the appointment of Committee on Missionary Education. The report was adopted.

On motion all unfinished business was referred to the Executive Board, and the General Board adjourned with closing benediction by Rev. W. S. Alexander.

Committee on Ministerial Relief

This committee was authorized by the Executive Committee but was not appointed in time for it to be placed with the officers and committees of the Convention.

Rev. J. E. Etter.....	Huntington, Ind.
Mr. W. K. Holt.....	Burlington, N. C.
Mr. H. E. Sims.....	Piqua, Ohio.
Mr. Fenner Brownell.....	Fall River, Mass.
Mr. M. S. Campbell.....	Collison, Ill.

Rev. Roy C. Helfenstein resigned from membership on the Administrative Committee of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, and Rev. W. H. Hainer, D. D., of Irvington, N. J., was elected to fill the vacancy, the vote being taken by correspondence.

MINISTERIAL DIRECTORY

This ministerial directory has been carefully compared, with and corrected by the roll of ministers furnished by the Conference Secretaries, except ministers whose age and bodily infirmities are known to be such as to prevent them from attending the conference sessions, but whose devotion to the church, and contributions to its work, remain as in the days of their strength.

The names of ministers belonging to the conferences that did not report are recorded, but the conference membership is not. The Christian Annual cannot take the authority to assign conference membership, and hence records only the names of members certified to by conference authority. The names are recorded as an act of courtesy to the ministers, with the hope that conference officials will hereafter deal justly with their members.

We had no report from the Afro-Christian Convention, of any of its Conferences, which fact accounts for the absence of the ministerial list from the Conferences of that Convention. The list as printed in the Christian Annual last year was made up from the printed proceedings that had been mailed to us.

 My Dear Mr. LePage:

I take this occasion to write you about the style 16 cups, and indeed our whole Communion Set. After nearly a year's use we are more than ever pleased with it. I have visited several places where the flat cup and Aluminum trays are in use and have just wished that the kind we have could be substituted for them. Ours are just a joy to us and I wish I could induce all to buy this kind. The glasses are much prettier and easier to handle and to drink from.

Yours cordially,
 Rev. Barnard P. Smith,
 Pastor Christian Church.

ART GLASS WINDOWS

The Crowning Beauty of the Church

The whole aspect and interior of any religious edifice is largely contingent upon the character of its windows.

A SPLENDID TREATISE

has been prepared, giving not merely designs, but a comprehensive discussion of the Art from the remote past to the present day. It illustrates fragments of celebrated windows found in some of the old cathedrals of France and England, as well as modern Art Windows in which these designs, centuries old, have been used.

Those interested in beautiful churches should have a copy of "The Crowning Beauty of the Church." It is sent free. Merely mention this publication.
